

Americans In London guided walk

October 13th

This walk is on October 13th starting at 11.00 am outside the National Gallery. Our long-standing guide, John Morgan, will be leading the walk which will take about two hours. The cost will be £10.00 per person. Full details are below. If you want to go, please contact Paul by clicking the link to Paul K at the top of this page.

Walk Information

This walk marks the 250th anniversary of the American Declaration of Independence and is themed around 'Americans in London'.

On our walk we will meet some of America's Founding Fathers; hear of its first settlers; its politicians and law makers; its scientists and wartime leaders. We will see the inspiration for some of its most famous buildings and the impact of American architects on London's skyline and its influence on British arts and culture.

Meeting Instructions

Date: October 13th

Time: 11.00 am

Walk start point: In front of the National Gallery - towards its eastern corner - in front of the statue of George Washington.

Practicalities

Nearby Transport: Charing Cross Train Station (4-minute walk)

Leicester Square Underground Station (4-minute walk)

Embankment Underground Station (7-minute walk)

Pre-walk Coffee & WC:

Cafe in the Crypt, St Martin in the Field Church

Pret a Manger - on corner of Charing Cross Road / St Martin's Place

Pre-walk WC only:

Charing Cross Station

Trafalgar Square - Down at fountain level on north side of the square

End of walk: The walk will finish outside St Paul's Cathedral