

Peek Frean Biscuit Museum Guided Visit

Tuesday 27 October at 12.00 noon

Nestled in the heart of Bermondsey, the Peek Freans Museum is a delightful homage to Biscuit Town's rich confectionery heritage. Once home to the iconic Peek Freans factory, this charming museum showcases an impressive collection of vintage tins, recipe books filled with long-lost biscuit creations, and heirloom treats that evoke nostalgia. Visitors are often greeted by passionate guides like Gary and Frank, who share captivating stories about the factory's history and its impact on local culture.

If you're interested in joining the visit please contact Mike via the link to Mike B at the top of the page. Mike will reply by return confirming your place and travel arrangements.
