

Discover Blackfriars....

Including a strangely named church and a pub

Wednesday 25th November

Itinerary

We assemble at 11 o'clock at Blackfriars station (convenient for 9.54 from Caterham)

Short walk to St Andrews-by-the-Wardrobe church - a wonderful church with history dating back to the medieval period. An Egyptian Coptic Christian will talk to us about the church and the Coptic faith. There is no charge for this talk, but of course donations towards the upkeep of the church will be appreciated.

From there we walk to Wardrobe Place (a wonderful hidden historic courtyard) and then pop into the lovely old Blackfriars pub, before crossing the river and on to the Doggetts Coat and Badge pub for lunch. This is a fascinating pub with a great history, beautifully situated on the river. Main courses £15 - 25

After lunch, we will walk back to London Bridge station. On the way, we will pass The Millennium Bridge, Tate Modern, the Globe Theatre, Cardinals Wharf, the Clink prison, Winchester Palace, the Golden Hind replica.

You may choose to visit Southwark Cathedral and Borough Market before travelling home from London Bridge

Maximum walking 1 mile, mostly flat.

To join the trip click the link at the top of this page to Mike Br. Places are limited.